Vocal Pedagogy Initiative 2023-2024

Josefien Stoppelenburg, Soprano

The Arizona Bach Festival announces its first year-long Pedagogy Initiative in a series of workshops, master classes, recitals, salon concerts, and private coaching with the renowned Dutch Soprano, Josefien Stoppelenburg. Vocal artists and ensembles are invited to register for this program through our website, arizonabachfestival.org for one or all of these events. In addition, private study is available for a fee. Details are noted on the website.

The Melisma Course in September and Master Class in November were both successful and we look forward to the two more master classes and a salon recital at Orangewood Presbyterian Church (7321 N 10th St, Phoenix, AZ 85020) in the Spring!

March 9 and 10 – Master Class on Saturday morning with additional opportunities for private study. The Initiative will provide a Master Class collaborative pianist (participants must provide scores 2 weeks prior). Event Site: Orangewood Presbyterian Church, Phoenix, AZ. There is no fee for the Masterclass. This session is offered in conjunction with the festival concert Continuo Power on March 8th.

April 20 and 21 – Master Class on Saturday morning with additional opportunities for private study and a Salon Recital in the evening with performances by Ms. Stoppelenburg and Initiative Participants. There is no fee for the Masterclass. Event Site: Orangewood Presbyterian Church, Phoenix, AZ.
